

Contract Campaign Volunteer Sign Up

(April and May 2013)

Name _____

Best Email at which to contact you _____

Site or Berkeley High SLC _____

Please sign up for ONE activity and help us gain the best possible contract we can:

_____ April 15th, Monday through April 19th, Friday: I am willing to log my extra duty hours on the form provided to me as part of a membershipwide union effort to demonstrate how teachers go above and beyond every single day.

_____ April 17th, Wednesday: I am willing to wear my BFT t-shirt, hoodie, and/or button to show my solidarity with the BFT Negotiations Team.

_____ By April 21, Sunday: I am willing to write a letter to the editor of the Berkeley Times using the current BFT contract campaign talking points.

_____ April 24, Wednesday: I am willing to attend the School Board meeting from 7:15 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. We will be talking with the Board about the impact on members and their families of four years with no raises and no increase in the District's contribution to the cost of health benefits.

_____ April 24, Wednesday: I am willing to SPEAK at the School Board meeting about the impact on myself and my family of four years with no raises and no increase in the District's contribution to the cost of health benefits.

_____ May 8, Wednesday: I will join the mobilization of our entire membership at the School Board meeting from 7:15 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. I will help the fight for a fair contract!

_____ I am a K-5 teacher and am willing to leaflet with my colleagues at my site one morning before school to reach out to the parent community. (Details will be provided by your site rep.)

_____ I am willing to write a longer (450 words) op/ed piece for the Berkeley Times with assistance from BFT officers and staff.

_____ I am willing to meet one-to-one with a parent or community member to explain the impact of four and a half years with no raise and no increase in the District's contribution to the cost of health benefits, with assistance from BFT officers and staff.

Please return this form to your site rep, to BFT by scanning the form to brittalamo@berkeley.net, or by faxing it to 549-2308.

NOTE: Members will receive a confirmation of their commitment and at least two reminders from BFT.

(Updated 4/9/13)